The Journal is published annually by the American Musical Instrument Society, Inc. (AMIS), an international organization founded in 1971 to promote the study of the history, design, and use of musical instruments in all cultures and from all periods. Subscription to the Journal is obtained through membership in AMIS. For information, see the Organization and Membership section of this issue.

Contributions to the Journal should be submitted in clean typewritten copy, with all material—including block quotations and footnotes—double or triple spaced. (Users of computer printers are requested not to justify right margins, to use ten-pitch character spacing, and to include the total byte count.) Margins should be at least one inch on all sides. Footnotes, figures, musical examples, tables, and captions should be submitted on separate sheets. Photographs should be clear black-and-white glossy prints. Authors should follow A Manual of Style, 12th ed. rev. (Chicago and London: University of Chicago Press, 1969); footnotes should contain complete bibliographical information. Manuscripts and editorial inquiries should be sent to the editor, Martha Maas, Ohio State University School of Music, 1866 College Road, Columbus, OH 43210.

Publications for review should be addressed to the review editor, Kenton T. Meyer, 2505 North Gordon Court, Milwaukee, WI 53212.

Advertising and business matters should be addressed to the AMIS Membership Office, c/o The Shrine to Music Museum, 414 E. Clark, Vermillion, SD 57069.
